Subject: CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

Importance: High

The FBI would like to put all Judiciary Committee staffers on notice that it now considers some of the information contained in two Judiciary Committee briefings to be classified. Those briefings occurred on June 17, 2002, and July 9th, 2002, and concerned a woman named Sibel Edmonds, who worked as a translator for the FBI. The decision to treat the information as classified from this point forward relates to civil litigation in which the FBI is seeking to quash certain information. The FBI believes that certain public comments have put the information in a context that gives rise to a need to protect the information.

Any staffer who attended those briefings, or who learns about those briefings, should be aware that the FBI now considers the information classified and should therefore avoid further dissemination.

If you attended this briefing and took notes, please contact Pat Makanui, Office of Senate Security, at 4-5632.

If you have any questions, please call Nick Rossi at (202) 324-7484.
