Dear Ms. Brian:

Thank you for your letter of October 28, 2009, regarding the Inspector General's investigation on conflict-of-interest issues involving a former Commissioner. Your letter asked that the Commission consider a number of actions based on the findings of the report. Please be assured that we take the report very seriously. I have discussed the report with the agency's General Counsel and have asked him to consider appropriate action in response to the report, including possible actions to provide greater assurance that ethical obligations are effectively implemented and communicated across the agency. A more detailed reply to your letter will be forthcoming.

Sincerely,
